

Natalie Schoen

419 Church Street
Iowa City, IA 52242
563-581-4283
natalie-schoen@uiowa.edu

EDUCATION

The University of Iowa
B.A. Environmental Policy & Planning
B.S. Geographical Information Systems
GPA: 3.55/4.00

Iowa City, Iowa
Anticipated May
2021

WORK EXPERIENCE

Long Hollow Canopy Tours
Tour Guide

Galena, Illinois
March 2018 - present

- Performed trail maintenance and invasive species control
- Developed interpersonal skills through interactions with customers and coworkers

University of Iowa Recreational Services
Assistant Leader

Iowa City, Iowa
January 2017 - present

- Developed communication and education skills through instructing peers
- Increased my ability to perform tasks in stressful situations and overcome unforeseen adversities

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

University of Iowa
Leadership in Training

Iowa City, Iowa
January 2017 - present

- Obtained leadership skills through teaching outdoor courses to peers
- Developed useful teaching techniques and strengthened communication

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Environmental Coalition
Member of the Student Organization

Iowa City, Iowa
August 2017 - January 2019

- Participated in recycle and clean-up projects, fundraisers, and political lobbying to benefit the environment and community

Friends of Hickory Hill
Volunteer

Iowa City, Iowa
October 2017

- Removed invasive honey suckle at local park
- Developed knowledge on invasive species and learned techniques to help maintain ecosystems

CORCLIMA
Map Designer

Monteverde, Costa Rica
March 2019

- Created a digital map that displayed charging points for electric vehicles across Monteverde, Costa Rica, to promote the use of clean energy in transportation

Big Fen Land Survey
Volunteer

Estherville, Iowa
November, 2019

- Accompanied University of Iowa professors in LiDAR data collection on a fen to determine land change over time
- Learned how to operate various LiDAR tools and visualize the data as a point cloud after data collection

SKILLS

Conversational Spanish